WHAT'S YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY STRATEGY?

Presented by

Daniel P. Batty, CFP®, ChFC®, CFBS, CFS®, CLTC

Michael Skiff, CFP®, ChFC®

Back by Popular Demand!

“What’s Your Social Security Strategy?” walks you through common, but surprisingly complex situations including:

- How to choose between the hundreds of possible claiming strategies
- How to give your Social Security check a government-guaranteed boost
- How benefits for one spouse are affected based on when and how the other spouse files
- How being married, divorced or widowed impacts your benefits

This presentation will educate you on the many decisions involved in claiming Social Security, as well as their consequences, and provide strategies to maximize your benefits received.

“REGISTER NOW!” for our upcoming seminars. Information online at www.chestercountynightschool.org or call 610-692-1964

This Spring's cover image was provided by local photographer Mark Bergkvist. While Mark has been an avid photographer for 35 years, he is always looking to expand his knowledge of photography. Over the years Mark has taken several photography classes offered by the Chester County Night School that have helped him refine his skills. Mark has been honored with both local and international awards for his photography. Mark's favorite type of photography is landscapes, but he also does product, portrait and event photography as well. You may visit and purchase some of Mark's beautiful landscape images on his website at <http://www.MarkBergkvist.com>.

A New Year To Grow and Blossom Through Lifelong Learning

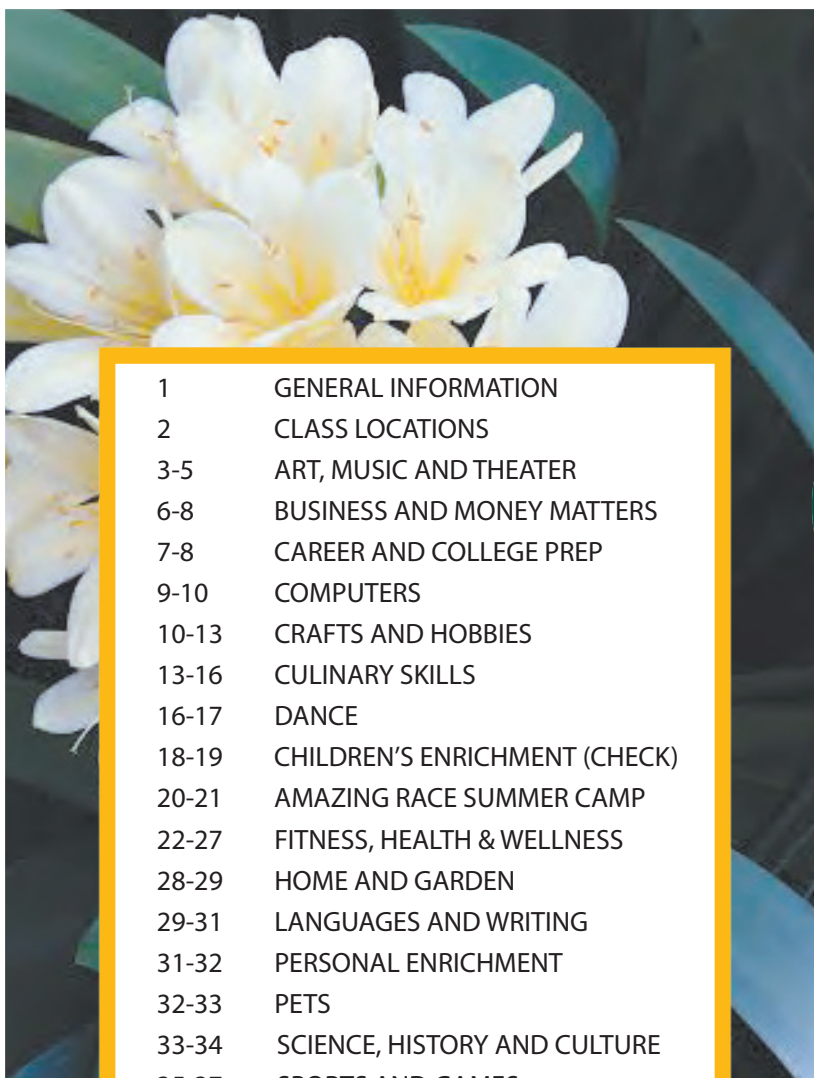

It's a new year, and we all know what that means. Whether your goal is to dust off those gym shoes, discover your inner artist, redesign your house or maybe eat more quinoa, it's a great time to get out of your comfort zone and challenge yourself - to be different, to be better, to grow and to blossom!

Let us help you! This catalog is filled with over 500 unique opportunities to enhance your lives. Let 2016 be the year that you devote more time to yourselves and do more of what you love. Let it be a year of learning, creating, challenging and flourishing through Chester County Night School and lifelong learning!

Chester County Night School has served the community for 61 years. As a small non-profit, we are so appreciative of the contributions of our community members - whether it be through their time, donations or valuable input into our program.

If you would like to help us achieve our mission of delivering low-cost and innovative classes, please consider making a donation to our program on our website at: chestercountynightschool.org.

We appreciate your support as we look forward to many years of continued fun, enrichment and learning!

CULINARY ADVENTURES!

Intro to Food Prep 4 Kids! (Ages 8-13)

Heather Lauter and Cathy Logothetis, instructors

Intro to Food Prep 4 Kids! will entertain and engage your children in the world of culinary dishes, from the basics of baking to foods around the world. Children will discover their culinary spirit while working in a full commercial kitchen with state-of-the-art equipment. Campers will develop skills in the areas of menu implementation, vegetable cookery, pastry baking, safe meat handling, utensil skills, kitchen hygiene, and healthy eating habits. By actively engaging in planning, preparing, cooking and cleaning up of the work areas, all campers will feel a sense of accomplishment. At the end of each week, students will have the opportunity to plan and execute a catered luncheon for their parents.

Amazing Race 2016 Summer Camp

Travel, Adventure and Learning for Ages 9-14

4 weeks: June 27-July 29 No Camp Week of July 4

Sponsored by Chester County Night School

Your kids will love this, and you will too! There's travel, excitement, and fun challenges in store each week at this unique summer camp, developed and led by two WCASD social studies teachers – Becky Peters and Mike Orenshaw – who know how to make learning fun!

The 2016 Amazing Race Travel & Adventure Camp includes awesome day trips via motorcoach to Washington DC and the Smithsonian ... New York City and the Statue of Liberty ... Annapolis, MD and the U.S. Naval Academy ... the National Aquarium in Baltimore ... plus the Philadelphia Zoo, Turkey Hill Experience, DaVinci Science Center and more. Travel days are Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and each week concludes with an "Amazing Race" challenge finale and grand prize winners.

Camp runs from June 27 through July 29 (no camp week of July 4) and is based at Fugett Middle School, 500 Ellis Lane in West Chester. The camp day begins at 8 a.m. (drop off is available at 7:30 a.m.) and concludes at various times depending on travel. See weekly itineraries on page 21.

Cost is $390 per child per week. Cost includes all admissions, travel costs and camp T-shirt; meals are not provided. Based on last year's sell out, we recommend registering as soon as possible to ensure your spot(s) and avoid disappointment. Note: Due to ticket/travel deposits that must be made well in advance of camp sessions, camp fees are non-refundable after April 15.

Why Learning To Read Can Be a Challenge

Perk Musacchio, instructor

Some children appear to learn to read with the greatest of ease, while others struggle to learn letters and words. Improve your understanding about how children learn to read, why some children struggle to acquire basic literacy skills, how to understand diagnostic assessments, and which strategies are the most effective for specific reading skill instruction. Techniques for enhancing reading and writing skill development will be shared, as well as ways to communicate your concerns with your child's teachers. It is critical that children become fluent readers before leaving elementary school. Working as a team is the best way to support your child's literacy skill development.

Greystone Hall: Spring House Tour

Velda Jerrehian Moog, instructor

In the tradition of the Biltmore Estate, the DuPont mansions, and the grand houses of Newport RI, Greystone Hall stands today as a living monument to the era of great American mansion building from the Gilded Age to the 1920's. Come enjoy a guided tour of the first floor rooms of this grand country house. Designed by noted Philadelphia architect Charles Barton Keen and built for West Chester inventor, industrialist, and philanthropist P.M. Sharples, the English Renaissance style house has been owned by the Jerrehian family since 1942. Located just outside West Chester, the mansion remains a private residence and is not regularly open for public tours. Transportation is on your own.

Alexandria VA & DC Monuments Cruise Sat. May 21, 2016

CCNS Trip Coordinator: Suzanne Weber

Located on the banks of the scenic Potomac River, the town of Alexandria, VA has an extraordinarily rich past, as well as an exciting present. Historic sites, artist venues, local and visiting dignitaries, waterfront views, unique boutiques, and great eateries are all found here. Now a Washington, DC commuter town, tree-lined and brick-paved Old Town Alexandria was once a principal Colonial port and vital social and political center during the late 18th century. George Washington was a native of Alexandria and attended Christ Church, as did Robert E. Lee. Founded as a Virginia seaport in 1749, the beautifully preserved historic district has several buildings open to the public, including the Carlyle House where PBS's "Mercy Street" is filmed.

Included on our trip is a 90-minute narrated boat tour, Washington by Water Monuments Cruise. We will behold the splendor of America's monuments and the city of Washington aboard a narrated cruise on the Potomac River.

There will be free time to explore the city on your own. Meals are on your own. Cost includes monuments cruise, climate-controlled restroom-equipped motorcoach transportation, and driver gratuity.

Rediscover Gettysburg Sun. May 22, 2016

CCNS Trip Coordinator: Tom Swift

"The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here."

- President Abraham Lincoln, 1863

Exceptional lessons in leadership and the inspiration of American valor were demonstrated on Gettysburg's "fields of fire and fury" July 1-3 in 1863. It's been over 150 years since the Battle of Gettysburg, considered the pivotal moment of our Civil War. Join us on Sunday May 22 as we travel together to Gettysburg PA, to revisit the meaning and importance of the battle that forever changed US history.

Your guide is local social studies teacher Tom Swift, who has geared the tour to those interested in learning about the Civil War and understanding the importance of the Battle of Gettysburg. We'll tour the battlefield and National Cemetery, with the opportunity to "walk the field" at several spots and take photos of this hallowed ground. You'll hear accounts of the battle, and anecdotes of those who fought there. Afterward, we'll enjoy a film, cyclorama, and museum at the Gettysburg Visitors Center.

Cost includes travel by luxury coach bus, all admission costs and bus driver gratuity. Lunch is on your own.

Note: Children ages 10 and older are welcome.
